SERIES PREMIERE JANUARY 12

The cyber thriller — based on RL Stine's novel of the same name — centers around Lindy (Victoria Justice), a beautiful but reclusive hacker whose blog exposes everything from terrorist plots to suspected killers. After her roommate convinces her to try online dating, Lindy is targeted by a dangerous cyber stalker, whom she believes is one of her suitors. When things take a deadly turn, she teams up with the city's cyber-crime unit to catch the killer.
